THE EROTIC ISSUE

Our hottest issue of the year defines 9 shades of eros...

At the core of nude art photography lies the attraction that humanity has had for the nude female form, from the very beginning of our history. Erotic art has been incorporated into the architectures of historical buildings through Europe and Asia and the passion ignited by EROS has caused the rise and fall of multiple empires.

And still we run away from it, avoid it, keep it under wraps and vilify it anytime we are challenged with our interest in anything remotely erotic? Why is that one of the core instincts that make us human is also something that we are so afraid to publicly acknowledge, praise and enjoy?

This issue sets out to prove that photographing eros can be beautiful, enchanting and tasteful. Presented in the right 'light' we are all beautiful... And the 9 photostories in this issue are a testament to the diversity of erotic photography and talent that is truly worthy of being VOLO.

Let's take flight...

AURELIA shot by VIKTOR USIKAU

VIKTOR USIKAU

I was born in 1978. I live in Brest, Belarus.

I photograph mostly nudes. Photograph began in 2014. My passion started when we decided to do a photo session for my wife. I have invited a photographer. The result I did not like. I realized that I know how to take pictures better. Bought equipment. And I did. In the beginning I photographed my wife. Then her friends. And thus gradually expanding range of models. My wife – an instructor in the gym. So basically, all of the models I have found there – in the gym.

I live in a small Puritan town, with a population of 300 thousand people. Here, almost all each other know, and participation in such photo shoots condemned. Therefore, almost all of my models are anonymous. The pictures can not see the girls faces.

AURELIA

She was born in the suburbs in 1993. Since childhood, she was engaged in a dance studio. She graduated from the Polytechnic University in the specialty "Architecture". Powered by the designer. He continues to dance in the studio. She lives in the country and in the city, in which participation in the nude photos are not accepted by society. Therefore, for the purpose of anonymity in the photo is not her face.

WAKING UP IN THE MORNING

CLARA GALLO shot by PAOLO LAZZAROTTI

Love to see sensual girls waking up in a hot summer morning and making them ready to face the world.

A black and white close-up photograph of a person's face and upper body. The person has dark hair and is looking slightly downwards and to the right. The lighting is dramatic, with strong highlights on the forehead, nose, and cheek, while the rest of the face and the dark clothing are in deep shadow. The background is dark and indistinct.

YOLO MAGAZINE

PAOLO LAZZAROTTI

"I'm 43 and I'm lucky enough to live in a small village very close to some of the finest italian places like Cinque Terre National Park, Gulf of the Poets, Tuscan countryside and a wild coast line where I took some of my finest and awarded sea shots.

I moved my very first steps in photography when I was 19 with a compact film camera given by my father. I loved this gift a lot and I've started to look at the world around me in a different way. I learned everything by myself without reading any book or attending at any course. I did spend most of my time in understanding my errors and trying not have more in the future. I was aware this was certainly the most time consuming way to improve my own skills, but right now I realized this was the best way to develop my own genuine style.

My favourite subjects were landscapes, sunsets and all the things strictly related to Nature. Well, I can fairly state I love Nature in all its forms even now, especially when she reveals to me her majestic strength making me feel a stupid thing against her.

Along the last 2 years I just wanted to shoot something else, more specific, focusing my attention to seascapes to have some fresh stimulus to feed my passion. And I discovered an amazing and unexpected love with sea storms, taking some risk most of the times I get exposed to the huge waves and rain. But this acts as a drug to me, I just can do without it any time a storm is threatening my area!

On the other side, I'm also loving female portraiture lately, something completely different from sea storms...yes, i'm crazy enough to make two different worlds living together in full harmony in my soul!

I love woman "talking" about sensuality and passion, I do rarely look for beatiful women just posing in front of me in a static way. My women have to speak aloud to me, whatever they have to say. Glamour and Boudoir are my favourite choice and seduction must be the real subject of the scene, not the woman. Implied nude is also quite something to me to put a beatiful body nicely on evidence and leave something to the imagination. At any rate, whatever I shoot, I put all my passion in regardless of the subject. I couldn't take a click for something not completely inspiring me. That's the way I move my steps into Photography"

"I was born in Alessandria (an industrial city in northern Italy) 28 years ago but my parents do come from Naples. I've got started in the fashion business 4 years ago attending and winning at local beauty contests despite my curvy profile.

At the present, I work as a freelance model based in Alessandria (ITALY) and I'm available for shooting over all Europe. Oversea collaborations to be evaluated.

I do love Nature and I take care of my body with natural and biological recipes. Nonetheless, I can't resist to Italian food paying attention to fats and carbohydrates.

I like sweet and sensitive men with light color eyes and dark hairs that can give all of them to me. I do believe in love and I give all of me to the man I love."

AMY'S BALCONY PARTY

AMY WILDER shot by FRANCISCO VAZQUEZ

This is the third and final set of Francisco's balcony series. This fits as a Volo series set because it has the sensual femme fatale appeal that Volo stands for.

FRANCISCO VAZQUEZ

Francisco Vazquez is an American photographer born in 1988 Frankfurt, Germany to Puerto Rican parents. He acquired his passion for photography while attending the university of SCAD in 2010. Ever since he has picked up the camera, he has never let it go. Shooting everything that intrigues and fascinates him. Photography in his eyes is another form of storytelling.

With this idea of stories being told through images makes this art medium thrilling for Francisco. After graduating SCAD with a degree in Film & Television in 2013. Francisco moved to Atlanta, GA to have a career as a photographer. Living in the city of Atlanta there has been many inspirations on every corner. So many untold stories that need to be told. An opportunity to create more photographic art with an abounding cast of talented artists. The passion of models, make up artists and photographers has driven Francisco to keep moving with his work and find new ways to tell a story through his imagery.

Home Alone

DARINA NIKITINA shot by ALEXANDER SHANGO

Darina is super comfortable being nude in front of camera and I always like to create images with her. I think she's perfect for Volo!

ALEXANDER SHANGO

"My love of erotic photography began in 1995, when I saw my first Playboy magazine. I was just 15 y/o, but works by such masters as Mario Casilli, Richard Fegley, Arney Freytag and Stephen Wayda became a great inspiration to me. From that moment I realized that I wanted to be involved in this somehow. It took many years, but today I can call myself a photographer, who was published in Playboy in six different countries. You can also find my works in FHM and Maxim worldwide. But sooner or later there is a desire to conquer new peaks. That's why I decided to try my luck in VOLO – world's number 1 nude art magazine. I definitely want to be part of it! For this set I chose Darina, who wanted to become a member of the VOLO family as well.."

DARINA NIKITINA

"I am a Russian model & currently living in Saint Petersburg. I am 25 years old and I do nude modeling a lot. I just love it! Being myself or realizing photographer's vision in pictures. I've spent a lot of time travelling around the world and enjoy being able to shoot at different locations. Every photoshoot is a new story, different feelings and a lot of new people! I spend my free time going to gym, meeting new people, traveling, spending time with family and making new friends.

I am assertive person, sometimes even too much, and always go all the way, but despite all this, I am tender and kind. In people I appreciate courage, persistence and openness. I believe thoughts can become reality. Positive, loving thoughts can make dreams come true.

Misty in the Garden

MISTY LOVELACE shot by JASON SALVATORI

This photoshoot was inspired by the concept of Eve in the Garden of Eden, succumbing to temptation. Holding the apple, she contemplates what she may gain and what she will lose, then uses her new knowledge to try to draw the viewer in to join her in the forbidden knowledge. It was shot near sunset in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia.

JASON SALVATORI

Jason Salvatori is a theatre technician and hobbyist photographer from near Toronto, Canada. When not working he spends as much of his free time as possible travelling to shoot with as many professional models as possible, throughout Canada and the United States. He has plans to go abroad next year as well.

CANICULE

CINDY KIROVOGRAD shot by LYS TIGER

“Canicule” series (“Heat Wave” in english) performed during a hot day in late summer. We wanted to push the extreme sensuality, chills, skin texture, contrasts ... We shot on bed, in natural light, and everything was as smooth an ice cube on wet skin.

LYS TIGER

"I'm Lys, French female photographer, passionate of eroticism and fascinated by the curves, by the light that sculpts the hollow, and sublime them..."

I photograph on instinct, I research the animal side that hides in all of us.

But I do not like to tell my life, and prefer to let my work speak for me"

LYS-TIGER.BOOK.FR

CINDY KIROVOGRAD

"Be yourself, be another, that we would like to be or that we are in silence ... Through an encounter combining both universes, photography for me is the expression of a desire, a fantasy or reality. The opportunity to dare to break down barriers, to tremble a moment, diving into a dream. The opportunity to plural meetings and timeless creations"

SANDRA GILISSEN shot by PETER VAN HEULEN

This set was taken at a nice location. The model is a nice contrast against the background. Making pictures in unexpected surroundings give both of us a thrill.

VOLO

PETER VAN HEULEN

"Peter van Heulen is my name, just call me Peet as anyone does. I'm a photographer, born in Vlissingen, The Netherlands , I was raised abroad. At sixteen I decided to settle in my home-town and study Photography. My home Zeeland is working area and the inspiration for many of my photos.

Generally the sea dominates my portfolio , I use a large format panoramic camera and digital DSLR, to capture the power of nature in my work.

Much of my work has gained a permanent place in hotels, restaurants and offices around and private homes in the world. Besides my landscape work I publish books about photography. My latest book is about learning Nude and Glamour photography. During the years many pictures got published in magazines and websites. More and more i work on outside locations and try to make an interesting nude or glamour story. My goals this year is to get more people see my nude work and this is why i want to join the Volomagazine. It is the top of the magazines and it would be great to work together with them and meet other photographers from the globe.

SANDRA GILISSEN

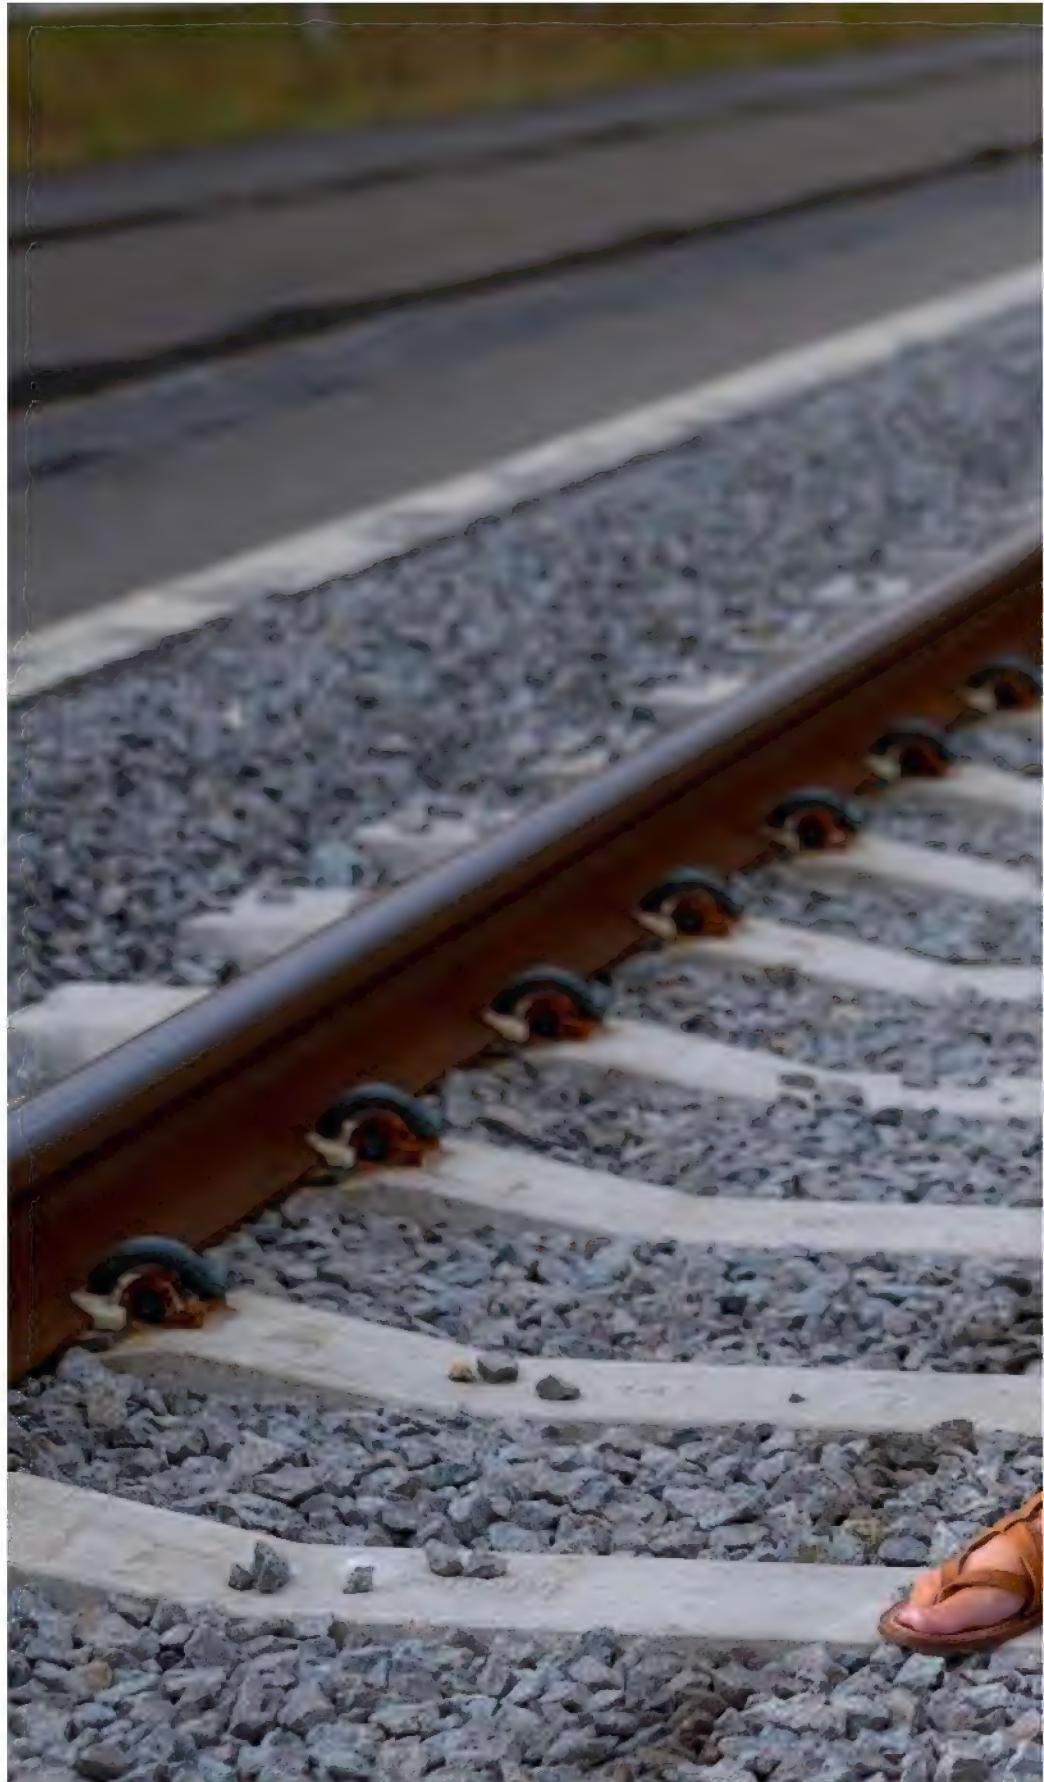

"My name is Sandra Gilissen and I am a belgian indiemodel and –actress. I am specialized in glamour and art photography, but I regularly get booked for fashion, beauty and commercial work as well. Besides my work as a model I also appeared in a variety of movies as an extra.

I am an indiemodel, which means that I have a characteristic that makes me different from the mainstream models. In my case that's my height. I'm 5ft. 2" and that makes me one of the smallest models in Belgium. One of the reasons I started modelling is to promote petite models.

As you might have expected, I am a romanticist and a dreamer. I am always busy changing the world! I also love nature, good food and good wine. But above all I love my friends and family, they mean the world to me!

What I love the most about modelling are the transformations that take place, both mentally and physically. Every time I get in front of the camera, I meet a totally new persona of myself and I like to share at least one of my persona's with the readers of VOLO! "
